“ I wish there was more time...time for more phone calls, time for more silly laughter, time to share more of our delicious recipes, time to go to our favorite Christmas stores together, time for more serious conversations, and more time to share with our family you so graciously let me be a part of. My wonderful mother-in-law has left her loving footprints forever in my heart. Thank you for your love... Angelika

“ I will miss my buddy carol. We had a lot in common and shared a lot of laughs with our “girl talk” over the last month or so. What a dear sweet soul to know. I am a blessed and better person having known her. She’s in heaven now - probably dancing again - no sadness, no aches nor pains. We should all be so blessed one day to reach heaven and giggle with carol once more. Praying for gods peace, love and assurance to cover the family as U remember. Luv you all. Nita Perdue.
