“ I never had the honor of meeting Mr. Allen. After reading these sweet comments and knowing his daughter-in-law Joy spoke so highly of him and loved him, I know where he is in the arms of his Savior

“ So sorry for your loss but rejoicing because I know that it was time for Mr. Allen to go to be with the Lord. Mr. Allen roofed our 2 previous homes and my mother's home. All 3 are still holding strong and dry as testimony to his skills and work ethics. I always found him to be a quiet, gentle, but strong, soul who never missed an opportunity to testify for Christ. “ Bro Allen served as a Deacon for Pratt Court Baptist Church while I was a pastor there from 1997 thru 2004. We shared some fond times as co-believers in Jesus Christ. He was strong in his love for the Lord. Also was able to meet his wife prior to her passing and was honored to conduct her funeral. Now he is with her, but he will surely be missed. Taught me a lot, and even allowed my son to work with him, roofing houses. Also got the opportunity to receive some of his organic vegetables that were delicious. Bro Allen, will always cherish our bible discussions and those afternoon talks. I thank God for allowing me the opportunity to come to know you and your family. You will be missed, but I know exactly where you are. I will see you one day, love you sir!

“ I never had the honor of meeting Mr. Allen. However, his daughter-in-law, Joy, loved him dearly. He did God's work on this planet. And now he is safe in the arms of his Savior.
