“ Cynthia was my cousin with whom I shared many fond memories during in my youth. My summer visits to her home in Fairhope were the highlights of my summer vacation.

“ There are so many great memories we have shared through the years! Our friendship began in college and has just continued up till now. She had such a wonderful sense of humor! She never complained about her own health issues, just was so concerned about others! She had a heart of gold! We laughed so much together. Every time we talked she would tell the latest about her boys and grands. She loved them dearly! Charlie probably dreaded each time we would get together because he knew we would talk and laugh nonstop! We had nicknames for each other. she was “Cyn” and I was “George”. Cyn, I will miss those phone calls, “Hi George. when are you coming to see me?” All I can say now is, “”Cyn, put in a good word for me and save me a spot. I love you!”

“ From Selma through out our adult years, Cynthia has been a sweet dear friend. Our children were friends during those "teen" years and we drew strength and encouragement from each other as we shared our struggles.

Most recently, we had a moment to share our heart pain as grandmothers, we cried, we laughed, we praised the Father for giving us such joy in our life. I truly believe Cynthia was a modern day example of a Proverbs 31 woman. She gave so many sacrificial moments to her family and her love for them ran deep. She would do most anything to make sure she was a part of their life ... Cynthia breathed the life of her grandbabies, her everything.

I will miss our times together and I'm sure she is bursting out as she sings joyfully to her Lord and Savior, her life is complete now!

I can't imagine the void her family is experiencing, but know this, Cynthia loves you with everlasting love and nothing can take that away from you.

“ Where to begin? Charlie, Trey, Andrea, Chris and all the family. For so many years we shared many memories together, it is hard to choose one memory. Simple as it is, we think it was the two of you sitting on the pew behind us at Crestview. We worshipped Him together every Sunday. We shared butterscotch! Shared many fellowships. Shared medical issues we all faced. Most of all we prayed for each other.

Yes, our Cynthia will be missed so much. But, we do know that she would want all of you to go on doing the best you can do.....living for each other.....loving each other.....

Love & prayers to everyone.
