“ Bill always had a smile on his face and was always willing to help. I had the pleasure of getting to know Bill, his father, his mother Sue and his wife and daughters while working with the Autauga Christmas Team. He will truly be missed. We're praying for Bitzi, Brittany and Brooke and can hear the stories that he and Abner are telling in heaven.

“ I don't know of a citizen in Prattville who's passing would sadden me more than this news - the homegoing of Bill Straughan. I would guess our friendship to have been at least 25 years or more, and his knowledge, kindness, generosity, and integrity will long be remembered and appreciated. Many a young man owes their work ethic to his tutelage. Our loss is Heaven's gain, and I am thankful for the sure hope to see him again one day.
