

Amy Walker

July 5, 1951 - June 11, 2012

WALKER,

Amy K., 60, a resident of Gulf Shores, AL, went to be with the Lord on Monday, June 11, 2012. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, June 16, 2012 from the Chapel of Prattville Memorial at 4:00 p.m. with Reverend Larry Teal officiating, with Prattville Memorial Chapel directing. Mrs. Walker was a loving wife and mother who will be deeply missed. Mrs. Walker is survived by her husband of 26 years, Larry C. Walker; one son, Larry S. Walker; two daughters, Laurin Walker and Rozzi (Russell) Morris; her mother, Kathy Beckfield; one sister, Lynda (Terry) Parker; and numerous other extended family members and friends. The family will receive friends at Prattville Memorial on Saturday one-hour prior to her service. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society in her honor, www.cancer.org

“ My sincerest condolences to Amy's family and friends on your, our, loss. I am deeply sadden by the news of her passing. I knew Amy from 1964 to 1966. We tried to stay in touch after my family moved from Prattville, but life had different paths for us. She was a very special person--funny, smart, caring, always happy. God bless her and us all.

“ Amy and I were good friends growing up on Rice Street. She was a wonderful woman. She will deeply missed but she is with our heavenly father now. No more pain. My thoughts and prayers are with all her family and friends. May God watch over you all in your time of sadness.

“ I am deeply saddened by Amy's passing. We enjoyed years and years of Girl Scouting -- camping and hiking -- going to the beach, riding her pony, participating in student government activities, powder puff football (opposing teams!), and just hanging out. At ACHS, Amy was my closest friend. I know her mom knows how extraordinary Amy was, even as a kid. My mother Pat joins me in extending our deepest sympathies.

Please know that Amy helped shape my life and that she will live in my heart forever. With love.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time of loss and sorrow. I have such wonderful and fond memories of Amy from the Prattville YMCA swim team to many others. She was an exceptional swimmer. She was always kind, fun, and caring to everyone. She went to school with my older brother, Jeff (whom we lost in January) and he always remarked on what an amazing person she was. Lean on family and friends during this time and especially on God. Amy is no longer in pain and is now your Guardian Angel. May God give you strength and peace.
