“ Betty and I were Tift sisters. We were usually seated by last name and ended up next to each other in classes. That sweet spirit, smile and long blonde hair made her stand out. In the BSU Choir, she was in the front row and folks were drawn to her. She missed our junior year, but came back to Tift and moved to Upshaw Hall where I lived. I was privileged to get to know her better and help with her strengthening exercises. She had such perseverance and good attitude. I pray her family takes comfort in the knowledge of her great faith in God.

“ It is so long ago but before I met Betty and Lloyd, my mom was telling me about her and how beautiful she was and about her and Lloyd wanting to do ministry work. I then remember meeting them and spending time with along the way and in Orlando in 97.
