

Bettye Jeanne Chambers Loftis

October 4, 1924 - November 30, 2016

Bettye Jeanne Chambers Loftis passed away on November 30, 2016. She was born on October 4, 1924 to Robert and Elma (Garner) Chambers. She grew up in Bessemer Alabama with four sisters and three brothers. She was known to her family as “Pinky” and in high school was voted as most likely to succeed...so she did. After high school she attended nursing school at Samford University and went on to work for the Veteran’s Administration Hospital for thirty years, and for most of those years she worked as a head nurse.

Jeanne married James Edwin “Buddy” Loftis on December 23, 1947 and raised a family in Prattville Alabama. She loved spending time with her family, playing golf, painting, reading, and working crossword puzzles as well as traveling around the country in an RV with her husband. She spent early mornings in quiet time with her Bible.

She is predeceased by her parents, her daughter (Sybil), her sisters (Sis, Cele, and Katie), and her brothers (Ralph, Leonard and Houston) She is survived by her husband, Judge James Loftis, and her sister, Glenda (Milton) Simpson. She is also survived by her children Tina (Joe) Bassett, Julie (Rudy) Wilson, Betsy (Tod) Stupski, Scott (Stephanie) Loftis, and Alvin (Dianne) Loftis and her grandchildren- Jim, Mindy (Chris), Lauren, Joe(Sara), Jill, David, Will, Jack, Sam, Joey (Donna), Lee (Pattie) and Julie (Robert) as well as great grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

And so it is written, “Her children will rise and call her blessed and her husband praises her, 'There are many virtuous and capable women but you surpass them all.'"

Services will be held Sunday December 4th, 2016 at 2:00 pm at Prattville Memorial Chapel, 841 Fairview Avenue Prattville, Alabama. Visitation will begin at 1:00 pm prior to the service.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be sent to First Presbyterian Church Prattville, Alabama or Palmer Children's Home, Columbus, Mississippi.
