“ My deep condolences to the family of Mr. Rhodes. During times like these, it's best to turn to God for comfort. He says he is" healing the broken-hearted one" in times of distress (Psalms 147:3). May the support of family and friends be with you.

He always made me feel very special. He had the best time going fishing and eating at his very best friends house joe thorne jr and he loved my son levi he always would say THAT LEVI LIKES ME HE'LL DO ANY THING FOR ME! But the thing that excited him more than anything in the world was our sweet lil granddaughter HANNAH RAE RHODES and his son Kevin and amanda Rhodes. He also had a good friend Larry Tucker. Those two were always tinkering with outside junk but that madehim very happy and made him feel good. Bill you know me, Allie, Kevin, Amanda, Hannah Rae, Levi, Sam and all of your close friends will always love you and cherish all of the funny and fond memories of you. Save a set of wings for me for i will see you soon.

You always made us smile and laugh, together forever your memory will last. You were always a great man to everyone, you made everything so fun. Your journey on earth has come to an end, God chose a good angel to bring home with him. Although this is not the end for you, this is a great beginning and one day we will all be up there to join you. This is just a goodbye for now, we will see you again someday.

I was talking to Levi earlier today about how you loved to go fishing no matter if you were catching nothing or not. But when you got your line tangled up, I would look over there and you would be fooling with it with your tongue hanging out of your mouth :). I remember sitting here in the living room watching swamp people, hardcore pawn, pawn stars, swamp loggers, restaurant impossible, family feud....and a lot more over and over and over again no matter how many times we have already seen it before. Im glad you FINALLY got to go for a ride in my truck...you always talked about how much you liked it. And here close to the end you didnt have much to say but you wanted Levi to take you to Captain D's to get you something to eat...and he did. We always tried to make sure you got what you wanted to eat. Im sorry it had to end like this but I know you are happy that you aren't in pain anymore and so am I.
