“ Carol was one of the most naturally beautiful women I have ever met. As I came to know her, her inner beauty came out as well. She was a fun loving girl, with an infectious laugh. I can hear it now if I just listen. She gave us a blessing in Angie, her daughter, who we love dearly. God bless you sweet Carol.. We will miss knowing your not here on earth with us any more, but know you are in our memories and heart . We love you, Clyde and Nan !!

Carol & I worked together for years, but more than that - we were lifelong friends. She was my only attendant in my wedding. TRULY gorgeous inside & out. And that laugh! I got the joy of watching Angie grow up into a beautiful young woman. Donnie loved Carol with ALL his heart and she him. There is not enough room to share the fun times we had, trips we made, and the hundreds of Friday night card games around the kitchen table on Crouson Street. Thank you Jesus, she is fully healed, fully made whole and laying her crowns at the foot of her Savior. You my sweet friend, will be missed by many. God Bless Don and Angie and all who loved her.
