“ Carol was my sister's closest friend for more than 30 years. In all those years she was the most loving, tender, supportive friend anyone could dream of having. Their relationship was a joy to behold and the emptiness that Carol's passing has left with so many will remain. I don't know if I'll ever read another good book and not remember Carol's love and sharing of her personal library. She has missed Claude so much over the years and now they're reunited.

Dear ones,

Tho you are not near for us to hug, you are all in our prayers and thoughts. May you be comforted knowing how much we love you and that our Lord is with you and cares about your time of loss. We share your great comfort knowing that your mom is home in the peace and joy of our Lord now.

Dear Teresa and family, I just this moment heard the sad news of your Mother's passing. I pray that you all are wrapped in the love of God to help you through this most difficult time. Take comfort in His love and knowing that there is one more angel above watching over you. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
