

Carolyn Coalson

August 15, 1942 - July 14, 2023

Carolyn Coalson, 80, of Prattville, Alabama went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, July 14, 2023, after an extended illness. Carolyn is predeceased by her husband, Samuel Coalson, parents Jake and Savilla Manning; brother Lester Manning; and sister Geraldean Peacock. She is survived by sisters Jettie Rawls and Mary E. Cook and brother Lawrence (Elaine) Manning and Wanda Waddell, Gail Rayburn and Kathy McDowell and a host of nieces and nephews, and one special great, great niece, her precious Hope.

For many years, Carolyn was self-employed in the produce industry at the Augusta Farmers Market and later at the Montgomery Curb Market. She frequently helped youngsters not only by providing them with a job, but also by instilling valuable life lessons and encouraging them to better themselves. She also stressed the importance of education and made sure these youngsters had time to complete their schoolwork. The family would like to extend their appreciation to the Jackson Hospital CVICU staff, Encompass Health and Rehab, Capitol Hill Health and Rehab, Baptist Hospice, and a special caregiver, Kathy Colee.

There will be family visitation on Tuesday, July 18, 2023, at 9:30 a.m., at Prattville Memorial. The family will receive visitors from 10:00 – 11:00 followed by graveside service at 11:30 a.m. at Manning Cemetery, County Road 59, Prattville, Alabama. Pallbearers will be Richard Manning, Tyson Cook, Bobby Manning, Joey Johnson, Hunter Post and Barry DeVaughn. Honorary Pallbearers will be George Turnipseed and James Thebo.
