“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

Thoughts and prayers for all of you. We just heard about Carolyn this morning. Kenny and Carolyn were first cousins. Cullen and his daddy, Woodrow were brothers.

“ Carolyn had a heart of gold. She was always trying to help other people with their problems, no matter what she was facing in her own life. Her smile was contagious and when she loved she loved with her whole heart. She was a worker for Christ and it did not matter if the task was great or small, in the lime light or behind the scenes, she was there to do all she could do for God. She was a willing vessel for Christ and her testimony will continue to live on with those that knew and loved her. We will miss you Carolyn, but we will be together again one day.

“ *Joe and Sue James,
We are so sorry to hear about Carolyn. We were so lucky to spend Thanksgiving with Carolyn and Bill. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Morris family.*

“ Sister Carolyn was always smiling when I was around her. She never had a frown on her face. She was always happy all the time. She never said a bad remark on anybody. She always said a kind and loving word to people. She always uplifted me. And, she was always there for me when I needed her. Sister Carolyn I am going to miss you so much. Your smile at church. And, your voice speaking kind words to me. I love you and I know you are probably sitting at Jesus feet. But, do one thing for me and that is will you look for my dad and tell him I said hello and I am doing fine.

“ As we were going thru The book of Revelations as a Bible Study, I remember Carolyn telling me that she is glad that she will be watching all the things that will be happening during the tribulation, from the Balcony. :-) I see her face in my Spirit now reminding me of that statement, and getting her chair set up for a front row seat. We miss you sweetie, see you soon. Steve and Lisa Braunstein...

“ Carolyn was a spirit filled child of God. She was always full of praise for Him. she will be missed by all who's lives she touched. But, oh she is sitting at his feet singing that new song... What a wonderful thing for her to celebrate his Birth at his feet.... We will miss you Carolyn, Jim and Becky Hamby

“ Carolyn, had such a gentle spirit. She was always kind to everyone and loved the Lord with all her heart. Very few people do you meet that have a true servants heart. She was one of the few. She will always be remembered for her willingness to help anyone even when she did not feel well. She will be greatly missed. Kay Still
