“ We will miss her at greensprings. She was always saying something funny and always either trying to to "sell" us a house or advise us on buying a house. She had me to make her out a "check "Thursday for $120 on a napkin. Still not sure what it was for. Always tried helping us with stuff and we let her when its something we could let her help with.

Danna, thank you! It made us all feel better knowing that she often believed she was at work rather than being a resident, and it means the world to us that you all went out of your way to engage and play along for her benefit.
