

Charles Kervin

January 14, 1938 - October 3, 2012

KERVIN, Charles LeRoy, 74, a native of Red Level, Alabama and a resident of Prattville, Alabama passed away on Wednesday, October 3, 2012 at a local hospital. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, October 6, 2012, 10:00 a.m. in the Prattville Memorial Chapel with Rev. J.B. Burt officiating. Burial will follow in Prattville Memory Gardens with Prattville Memorial Chapel directing. He was a graduating member of the Red Level High School Class of 1957. He attended New Vision Baptist Church. Mr. Kervin worked for Barber Dairies and was a Wholesale Route Salesman from November 28, 1960 until his retirement on October 30, 2001. He also served in the Alabama National Guard from October 10, 1955 until retiring on January 14, 1998. While in the National Guard, he was a part of several units: Quartermaster, Transportation, Military Police and Medics. He last served as a Medic/Platoon Sergeant with the 161

Tribute Wall

WP

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of your father. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all. God bless you.

Wayne & Patsy Deer - December 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM

MA

“ I was sad to hear Charles had died. He and Wanda were really kind people. I cleaned his teeth in the dental office every six months as long as I can remember. He loved all of you very much. I loved the stories he would tell me about Lee Ann's little boy. He will be missed. My thoughts are with you all.

Marianne Stephens - December 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM

BG

“ I'm so sorry to hear about your dad. He and my dad, Robert Gentry, worked together at Barber's for many years. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers at this time.

Betty Gentry Holmes - December 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM

LE

“ I am very sorry to hear about the loss of a fine American and military leader. Glad to have seen him a few months back.

Lee Walters - December 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM