“ Charlotte was one of those people who truly loved without reservation. She was welcoming to all who entered her house, and would offer whatever she had. The last time we saw her she had already begun the trek into complete forgetfulness, but she camouflaged it well. We had seen her the night before; however, she had forgotten. She greeted us with abandonment with that bright smile, and expressed her happiness in seeing us, like she hadn't seen us for a long, long time. We will always treasure her sweet spirit and friendship. Our love and prayers for Larry and family. Jack & Pat Boyer
