

Christian Thor Miltersen

October 26, 1992 - March 3, 2014

Airman First Class Christian Thor Miltersen, 21, passed away Monday, 3 March 2014, at Ft. Meade, Maryland. Christian was born on 26 October 1992 at Misawa Air Base, Japan where both parents were stationed as Air Force linguists. Following his military parents, Christian lived in Misawa, Japan; Okinawa, Japan; Beijing, China; Canberra, Australia; Monterey, California and for a short time in Prattville, Alabama where he enlisted in the Air Force. Christian was a Mandarin Chinese linguist in the Air Force and graduated from the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center with honors. He was currently assigned to the National Security Agency, Ft. Meade, Maryland.

Christian is survived by his father, Rob; mother, Sheila; his younger sister Marissa; his grandparents; 18 aunts & uncles; and 17 cousins.

Christian will be escorted home with full military honors from Andrews Air Force Base. Funeral will take place at Maxwell Air Force Base Chapel II in Montgomery on 15 March at 2:00 p.m.

Pallbearers will be members of the Maxwell Air Force Base Honor Guard. Honorary Pallbearers are his cousins James Miltersen, Parker Nichols, Colton Miltersen, Hayden Miltersen, Nolan Miltersen, Drew Miller and Jack Greer.

“ As I walk the halls yet again being stationed at the same location as Christian when he passed, I cannot help but think of him and imagine him as now SSgt, TSgt or MSgt Miltersen. He had a brilliant and questioning mind and was destined to make a huge impact in our community. It still hurts and haunts me today that we lost him at such a young age.
