“ I am so sorry to hear about Wayne's physical absence from all of the lives of the ones who cherish, value and love Him. I thought if him yesterday and decided to see why I haven't seen traces of him. I am glad to have had him in my life as a friend at Alex. City Jr. College, selling Bibles in Iowa and then back in Prattville in 2008! The trip to Iowa in his little MG was quite an experience. I still tell stories about the trip. I think he continued that kind of road trip with his motorcycle rides. I keep all his loved ones and family in my prayers.

“ Wayne will be missed as a terrific Uncle, I always looked forward to seeing he and Brenda at our family gatherings ,we shared many similar interests from motorcycling to cajun cuisine .My sister Cheryl ,Waynes niece observed that our table is getting emptier here in this world while theirs grows fuller in the next. I know Wayne, Brenda, "Maw Maw" , Granddaddy and his sister (and my Mother) Sue and Tommy (my Dad) are all the "big table" smiling down on us left here and waiting on our eventual arrival .Bless you Wayne and John and Steven who along with the rest of us must carry on without you , love you Uncle Wayne .

“ Our hearts are so saddened to hear of our friend going home. I pray we will be with him soon. I will miss him so much at the legion, he always made me feel so beautiful. He always would tell me you are the most beautiful woman I have ever seen. It was nice, but I knew he said it to all the ladies. We did a lot of tall laughing, and talking and fellowship down at that legion. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. My God put his loving arms around you and comfort you as only he can. Wayne nothing will be the same..... until we see you again, behave yourself. ;) Always in our heart forever friend. Never forget you ever!

“ I am saddened to learn of Wayne's passing. He was a gentleman lawyer who always extended a kind word to me. When I was a young lawyer, Wayne was always willing to help me and never sought any reward. I pray he is at peace and enjoying deserved rewards in the bosom of Christ. May God comfort Wayne's family. I will miss my friend but hope to join him one day and laugh together again.
