

Dolores B Cooper

June 29, 1928 - January 14, 2018

Mrs. Dolores B. Cooper left home to meet Jesus Christ and her family members last Sunday morning and died a peaceful death. Her husband of 70 years is Melvin G. Cooper who looks forward to seeing her again because no man has ever loved his wife as Mel loves Dolores. She will enter heaven and greet their son, Mel, Jr. who died in December of 2016. She also looks forward to seeing her father, mother, two sisters and one brother. She will await in Heaven for two daughters, Melanie Papke and Joy Heaton; their fine husbands, Carter and Tom. Dolores was a fantastic Christian and the highlight of her week was worshipping with all the wonderful ladies in her Sunday school class at First Baptist Church. She always wore a hat to church and thought that Dr. Jay Wolf and his wonderful staff prepared her for eternity in Heaven. Dolores has two fine brothers, Joe and N.E. Burluson; who both reside in Knoxville, Tennessee and a loving sister, Nancy Bolin who lives in Arkansas. On Sunday morning, January 14, 2018, Heaven's gates opened to the finest military wife a man ever had and Melvin will miss her beyond description. Mrs. Cooper's funeral service will be held on Friday January 19, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. in the chapel of First Baptist Church of Montgomery, 305 S. Perry Street, Montgomery, AL 36104. Interment will be held on Friday with only family in attendance. She loved flowers but she also loved the Home Mission program of the church.

“ Dear Family, I am so very sorry about the loss of your dear loved one. May the thought at Job 33:25 give you comfort in knowing that Mrs. Cooper will return to the days of her youth and be able to enjoy life without the infirmities of old age. My sincere condolences to you.

“ I always LOVED the hats Dolores wore. She was always so friendly and nice. I have known her family for years, and loved when she use to sing. Hardly ever saw Mel or her without the other one. A godly woman, wife, mother, and friend.
