“ There was a lot of love in Dorothy Clare's life. Even though she is gone, her legacy will live on in all that knew her. She was an incredible teacher, mother and friend who inspired everyone that knew her. Her memory will live in all of our hearts forever.

Mom

I know you are rejoicing in heaven and no longer suffering but I will miss you dearly.

“ I met dot in 2006. I was a nervous wreck meeting her I didnt know how the meeting would go Dot is Chad's adoptive mom and I am Chad's biological mom I gave chad up for adoption in 1980 and I was meeting her for the first time. As we started talking my nervousness dissapeared i felt at ease I already felt us bonding she was sharing with me all about Chad's childhood. I felt such a connection with her that day we bonded instantly we shared such a love and admiration for our son. She talked about how mischievous chad would be at times and other times when he brought so much joy to her life we laughed together about the shenanigans chad pulled but what I saw more than anything was how much she loved chad how he was the apple of her eye. She hugged and thanked me for giving her chad I said I gave him life but you gave him a wonderful life. A beautiful loving Christian home. I saw such a loving woman that day. We continued to talk over the years and write to eachother I loved how she would share all about Chad with me. We would pray together over chad. Dot was a loving christian woman that I am so glad I got to meet I am forever grateful for her giving Chad a life. I told her she raised an amazing loving giving son. I know she is looking down from heaven at Chad with so much love and admiration. Dot a beautiful woman a beautiful mom that has earned her wings. I love you Dot thank you for all you did for our son.
