“ Jimmy, Justin and Jimmy jr, dorrie family, when jimmy met dorrie, we knew they were soulmates!! dorrie bought so much laughter, her reaction at times was priceless, she was funny!! every time I called her, we talked for hours, jimmy would get on the phone for 5 minutes, I used to tell her, when i call uncle george, he would always put aunt pat on the phone, i said jimmy is getting his dad habit, she always said "hey, when are you coming to visit". she raised her "boys" with love, adventure, to enjoy life and treat people with respect. she was a doll, totally

“ The best memory of Dorrie is when her family stayed with us in Belmar years ago and we have an old house and at the time we didn't have a shower inside just claw bath tub. Her face, her smile, her laughter couldn't believe that our shower was outside, she quickly ran out of the house to see for her own eyes. We laughed about that all weekend . Dorrie's reaction was the best!! Such a wonderful memory. Will cherish her smile and her laugh in my heart forever:~) Love you Dorrie
