“ I didn't know you very long but I think I knew you pretty well. I saw how you gave of your time and compassion when others were in need and suffering. I saw how you gave so your granddaughters would have what they needed . I didn't know you very long but I know how you will be missed. God bless you all.

Dwight was in our family for a very long time. Dennis is married to my sister Sandi, and Dwight would join us at family gatherings from time to time. He was usually quiet and always so kind to me. It was through my dad, T. L. Hawkins, that I really learned the kind of man Dwight was. Dad and Dwight were roommates for many years. They were both looking for ways to cut expenses and decided they would give it a try. I don't know exactly how many years they lived together, but it was a long time. Dad was from the era where men didn't share their feeling easily, but he told me that Dwight was very good him through the years. He said he considered Dwight a real friend. I think both dad and Dwight were proud of their friendship. I will always be thankful to Dwight for taking such good care of our dad. My prayers are that the Morgan family will let God comfort you in your loss.
