“ *Earl,
You will always be my hero and best friend! Thank you for being a father figure, golfing coach, career advisor, and life psychologist. Most of all, thanks for being my mentor! I will cherish the camping trips, going to the races, watching the western channel, even though we seen all the John Wayne movies a hundred times and showing me off in front of all your friends at the post and them asking, Is this your son?. Most of all, I will miss working on that damn RV! You will always be in my heart, RIP. Edward*
