“ I did not have the privilege of personally knowing Mrs. Hassett. However, I am blessed to know Johnny, Sherry and Bobby. Her children and their families definitely reflect her characteristics - a strong, God loving, family loving individual with a quick wit! War Eagle

“ While my father was receiving extended medical care this wonderful lady took me in to her home for three to four months. During that time she treated me like one of her own children providing meals, parental oversight, and support during this period. There is no better example of living the Christian example than what she did for me. She will always be "Big Mama" in my heart. What a great lady! She will be missed.

“ My life is richer for having known Ms. Ruth. She has always been an angel, now she is an angel in heaven. We had so much fun at our birthday parties. We sat together in church every Sunday until her health prevented her from coming. I will miss her but will never forget her. I will see you again , Ms. Ruth! I love you💜
