“ I am very sorry to read of the passing of your beloved Emberlynn. It seems that life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. I am writing to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from the bible. God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I am th resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." The nine accounts of ones in the bible who were resurrected are a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. God can bring back the billions of dead he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God! With the gift of your memories of Emberlynn, they will bring you great joy. When a loved one becomes a memory that memory turns into a treasure. May you and yours lean on Jehovah God, the God of all comfort, for the strength you need at this sad time. (PSALMS 83:18)

“ Nick I am so sorry for your loss. Emberlynn (you know she's Nyxie to me) was a beautiful gift from God, even with having her here for only a short while, she gave you more love than you'll ever know or feel. Treasure you're moments with her, hold them close to your heart, and depend on God to carry you through this. I'm really so sorry and wish I could take your pain away, but only God can do that. Just know that you're in my prayers and I love you. Aunt Shelby

“ Dear Nick,
There are no words that anyone can say that will take your sorrow away. Just know you are not alone. You have a loving family and you have the Children's Center family that has been praying for you and thinking about you. God has you in His arms.

“ No pain can be compared to that of losing a child who was at such a young age. Emberlynn was the most beautiful, precious, little thing I've ever gotten the opportunity to meet. Just know that she is ALWAYS watching down on those who loved her, and she is at the side of God, who will always protect her. You (Emily), Nick, and the rest of your family will all remain in my prayers, just as Emberlynn will remain in my heart. May God watch over you and yours and help you through these grieving times. I love you all and pray that things will get easier.

“ I am so sorry for you guys. I have been praying for ya'll since I got the news. I love ya'll. Especially you Deb. She is a precious beautiful girl. So sweet and lively and active. My heart goes out to each member of the family. This is a great loss for us all and we will hurt a long time. May God be with us and help us get through this terrible tragedy. Love, Judy
