

Ethel McLain

March 20, 1937 - March 22, 2012

McLain, Ethel Margaret, 75, a resident of Prattville, Alabama, passed away peacefully on Thursday, March 22, 2012. Funeral services will be held on Monday, March 26, 2012, from St. Mark's Episcopal Church at 11:00 a.m. with Rector Scott Arnold officiating. Burial will follow in Prattville Memory Gardens, with Prattville Memorial Chapel directing. Peggy was born on March 20, 1937, in London, England within the sound of "Bow bells." She was a loving wife, mother, and doting Nana who will be dearly missed. Mrs. McLain was an active member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church where she sang in the choir for over 30 years. She participated in the altar guild and volunteered in various roles in the church. She is survived by her husband, Donald McLain; one daughter and son-in-law, Shelly and Mark Taylor; her grandchildren, Bronte and Ross Taylor; numerous friends including her fellow Brits from the Elizabethan Club and her special friend, Jean Rowland, whom she loved as a sister. The family will receive friends at Prattville Memorial on Sunday afternoon from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to St. Jude's Children's Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in the death of Peggy. She was a good friend and a fine Christian woman. I always admired Peggy from the first time I met her. We shared a love for angels and exchanged Christmas ornaments more than once at the ECW Christmas party.

*I know there is a beautiful voice now singing in the heavenly choir.
You are in my thoughts and prayers.*

Mary Lambdin - December 06, 2012 at 05:51 PM