“ Evelyn and I became friends when I was in 6th grade and she was in 7th. We stayed friends even after I moved to Colorado and stayed in touch through snail mail and later Facebook. I loved when she learned to crochet and would ask me advice, and I loved to just chat with her about life. I was very saddened to learn of her death. A little spot will be missing. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and Merry Cat...

“ My heart is saddened to hear of Evelyn's passing. We've spent many hours talking the day away sitting outside her house after church on hot humid days, walked the neighborhood and sit just knitting or crocheting with our mouths in high gear. My fondest memory with Evelyn is when she and I would go downtown to the Methodist church where with others we sewed and knitted caps, and sewed gowns for premature babies and for those who became angels. I will miss my sweet friend.

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear of Evelyn's passing. She was a kind, compassionate, caring person and looked for ways to serve others. I pray for comfort for her family as they go through the mourning of her loss. And I pray for their strength to do that tasks that must be done now that she is gone. Last I pray for their hearts to be filled with the love and concern of so many who also miss her.

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go to family and friends. I met Evelyn through S-Stop enjoyed spending time with her at S'Stop and other social events. She was always kind, sweet, Godly lady. Very encouraging while going through my treatments and recovery. I was honored to receive a prayer shawl she crocheted for me. I can find comfort in knowing she is Celebrating in the presence of our Lord and Savior.
