“ My Family is more than blessed to have known Faye and her family. She has taught me to be strong and that it is worth fighting. My family is so very lucky to have the whole Blackburn family as friends and I can say they are like family to us! We will miss Faye dearly but she will live on in our memories and we are very grateful for her. She has touched so many lives and I am glad my three daughters are amongst those. We love you Faye and will miss you!! Mike and Kaden and Haley and Caleb you are always part of our family!! We have all of you and the dear ones I have just recently met in our prayers and thoughts everyday .
