“ Several years ago when Bobby and I were in the Jabez SS Class at Eastmont members of our class went on a trip to Florida. Bro. Ed and you came on that trip with our class. He was a wonderful story teller. I will always remember his wonderful sense of humor and his love of laughter. His genuine love for others reflected in his smile and caring attention to when others spoke. He was a blessing to all he met and will be missed.

God blessed him with such a gift of reaching out to others. He will sorely be missed.

Our prayers are with you and the family

“ To Mrs. Linda and family...It is so hard to even begin to tell you how much Bro. Ed means to our family. He has been there through thick & thin with us. He was such a wonderful, loving, serving, Godly man and will be missed so much. The impact he has made on this earth is great & I know he is rejoicing with his Lord & Savior. Sending love and prayers to you all!

“ Linda & Family:

I have no doubt that when Ed got to heaven, they certainly said "Well Done thou good and faithful servant!" What a wonderful man he was!!!! He was so kind, considerate, loving, compassionate and helped me through some tough times in my life. I will never forget my parent's house (Dot and Rufus Spear) catching on fire. I got the call, and literally ran to their house because the fire trucks were everywhere. I didn't know if my parents were alive or dead, and he got to me before I could spot them and grabbed my hand and said "Carol, your parents are over here". Precious precious man of God. He helped us through all our parent's death and what an amazing man of God he was! He knew everyone's name, was such a hard hard worker, and I know he had a major reunion with Eastmont folks!!!! I know that Eastmont is grieving over the loss of him. He was so wonderful, and you were too to share him!

I'm so sorry sweet lady and know that ya'll are all in my prayers for months to come. Please give Amy and the boys my love and know that ya'll are all loved. I can't begin to imagine Eastmont "Forever Young" without Ed.

My prayers will be with you a long long time~!!!

Love to all of you.
