

Frederick J. Macready Jr.

November 14, 1937 - July 24, 2019

Frederick Justin Macready, Jr. (Mac) passed away at home July 24, 2019, after a long illness. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Jean Bynum Macready, his three daughters, Cindy (Randy) Flowers of Trussville, AL, Lisa (Lamar) Smith, and Patty Macready, all of Prattville, his brother, Irby Macready of Texas, and his sister, Laura (Barry) Leavell of Montgomery, five grandchildren, Jeff (Kristen) Flowers, Wade (Becka) Flowers, Andrew (Emily) Smith, Sarah (Christopher) Richey, Adam Smith, and four great grandchildren, Kayla, Kaitlyn, Colton Flowers, and Shawn Addilyn Flowers, and his beloved nieces, nephews, and their families. He was preceded in death by his parents and his grandson, Shawn Patrick Flowers.

Mac graduated from Phillips High School in Birmingham and immediately joined the US Navy. He retired from IBM, was a Vista Volunteer for the Autauga Co. Habitat for Humanity, and served nine years on the Prattville City Council, District 6. He was an active member of FUMC Prattville since 1967, when the family moved from Montgomery. Mac had many wonderful friends from work, church, band boosters, the City of Prattville, and fishing buddies. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 27, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at First United Methodist Church in Prattville. Visitation will be held on Friday, July 26, 2019 at Prattville Memorial Chapel from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m.

“ My sincere wish for comfort and healing for the family of Mac Macready. I had the distinct pleasure of working with him for several years in IBM. Mac had an innate ability to mentor younger workers and was a well liked worker and friend. God bless the family in this time of sorry. Rest in peace Mac...the world was a better place with you in it.
