“ I got to know this wonderful lady thru my dad, Bob Binford, a high school classmate. Gail kept all these wonderful folks in touch through periodic luncheons and I had the pleasure of accompanying my dad to a couple of them just a few years back. She was truly a gift to all her knew her and I feel so fortunate to have met her. My condolences to the family. I know Mom and Dad are enjoying their get togethers again with Ms. Gail in Heaven!

“ My heart and mind are in shock right now. I am out in Los Angeles with my youngest daughter Katrina, visiting for a few weeks. I had no idea my dear friend Gail was slipping so fast. She and I have so many memories formed over the past years at St. Joseph's , the Altar Society, then the ACCW local and Archdiocesan. Our families are friends as well. So many memories, good memories just visiting each other, working on plans for Altar Society projects and St. Joseph's church. I think we met somewhere around 1971-72, I thank God for that meeting that turned strangers into the best of friends. I love you Gail, may Our Lord hold your hand now!

“ Wonderful kind woman! I knew her from the age of 13. So elegant and defined. She was thoughtful, and did so much for her Community and church. Rest easy Mrs. Johnson! You keep the faith and won the race. Condolences to her family.
