“ Gary was a friend of mine we had many good times hunting fishing and I spent many nights with him and Wanna enjoying fellowship good meals at each others homes watching movies and in general just having fun . unfortunately we as many do drifted apart but in my heart remained friends .One thing above all I remember is the love he had for his children and no matter how hard he fought his disease he had a perpetual smile especially concerning his children .He is in peace now and with our Heavenly Father .I am sure he would not want us to mourn but rather say to us press on to that high mark that is to be like Christ Jesus showing love to all .rest in peace my brother I shall see you on God's golden shore .to the family know that he is watching in love saying Lord look that's my family

“ A soul lives inside each of us, dwells here in service for just a little while. When our journey is complete, we travel on....to the eternal place of our destiny. Those that we encounter along this journey are left with memories.

Gary, you left behind a legacy that continues to live through the lives of your children. May the memories they have of you be held dear. Rest in Peace, man. It was good to spend a part of my life recognizing you as a friend. Love and Peace, dear April and Chris....
