“ Danny and I are so sorry for your loss. George was my Supervisor at AI Dept Of Corrections (Central Records) and he was a good friend also. I cannot think of the times that he would say to Louise Bolling, Jay Cargill and me Renee Barker. OK Ladies it is time to go outside and smoke and drink coffee. The meaning behind that statement was one of us (or all) was in trouble. We have all laughed many time about that but were thankful that he corrected us in private. I will always remember those times and think of George. He had a love for you Ms. Pat all of his family that was special and would speak of each of you often. He made a difference in all of our lives. He was missed when he retired and will always hold a special place in my heart. May God give you peace in your time of loss and walk each day with you in the future. In Christian Love, Renee and Danny Barker.
