“ My condolences to the Litaker family that I have never met. I was a friend and teammate of Ed's at Marbury High School from 1968-69 to 1973. Later, around 1978-79, when Ed was a Montgomery County Deputy we played basketball together along with Bruce Huggins and Andy Hardin. It is funny to see Ed remembered as "Big Ed," because he always referred to me as "Big Pur" (I was 3-4 inches taller than he). I remember Ed as not being the most graceful athlete. His movements were a little wooden (perfect for the guard and tackle he was in football). He could hit a baseball a mile, but his swings were often late and the balls he hit were usually on the wrong side of the right field foul line. He took up a great deal of space on the basketball court (and set many a solid screen for Andy Hardin), but he did not have great leaping ability. Whatever grace Ed lacked as a an athlete, however, he made up for as a human being. He was everybody's friend. The Litaker home, as modest as it was, was a home to all his friends. Ed's mother was also our mother. Ed showed little ego and dealt well with those who had too much ego. Ed was calm and steady and dealt well with those of us who were more volatile. It is no wonder that he lived his life as a public servant in so many important roles. I got to have lunch with Andy Hardin a couple of months ago and he told me all about the life accomplishments of our dear friend. I wish I could have told Ed personally, but this will have to suffice. Ed, I am so proud of the man you became.

“ Litaker family.....I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Ed. He was such a huge figure in our class at ATF training, but a very soft spoken and "lead by example" type guy. I always respected him because of that type attitude. I went through training with Ed and he was the type of guy that was there every day, excelled in what he did, but unless you were thinking about who was in class that day, would not be able to recall that he was in there. That is the type of person that I long to be. You all should be so proud of the person that Ed was.....God's speed to you all. David Krieghbaum

For some reason I had heard a few years back that "Lit" had left MPD for ATF and then maybe I heard I believe from Robert Moore who incidentally died in 2015 that Ed had passed over. I came out of class 81B of the Montgomery Police Academy and Ed had graduated I'm not sure how many classes ahead. I got to know Ed in Motors. Our mutual friend David Coppage referred to big Ed as "Lit." Those were crazy crazy fun fun times. When you are in your 20's and have an amazing amount of responsibility and danger to deal with on a day to day basis boys tend to let off a little steam now and then! Ed was a wonderful man. Top notch friend, police officer, and unbelievably funny. Ed had a way about him that everybody loved and I mean loved. I could go on and on. One day I will see his smile and hear that ole drawl of his say " hey Skrimp you ready to roll?" Rest easy my friend...

“ We have only known Ed a few short years. In that time we have found him to be kind, considerate, smart, helpful and generous with his time and his knowledge, giving of himself from the moment we met him. He was easy to talk to and had stories to tell. Before his illness he would be at White City Cemetery in November for the placing of flags on graves of deceased veterans. That was important to him. Ed was a blessing to us and we will miss him.
