“ Dear Ann, I just found out about this today in talking with your nephew. Carol and I are so sorry. George was not only my friend and confidant but also a friend to my family. The life experiences he shared with me helped me through some very difficult times. I admired him very much and will miss his presence in my life.

Carol and I will keep you close in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.

“ Ann, we were so shocked and saddened to see George's obituary in the paper. Just last month we sat in his office and enjoyed every minutes of being there, George never failed to entertain us as he did our tax. He was a wonderful person, we will miss him. May God comfort and surround you with his love, and the presence and prayers of family and friends strengthen you. We have you in our prayers. Billy & Minnie

“ Ann, I cannot put into words how it saddened my heart to hear of George's passing. He was such a delightful and funny man. Big man with just as big a heart. It was interesting to just to sit and talk to him. I know he loved you better than his own life. Remember that and God bless you. I have you in my prayers!

“ There are no sufficient words to express the deep sadness we feel for the passing of such a remarkable man. Ann, knowing the close bond you and George shared, the shock of this sudden loss has got to be totally overwhelming. Know that George is at peace, in no pain and would want you to concentrate on the great memories of all the good times.
Our love and prayers are with you and your family.
