

Gretchen Littlejohn Loftin

July 19, 1960 - January 10, 2019

Gretchen Littlejohn Loftin was born on July 19, 1960 in Gadsden, Alabama and passed away on January 10, 2019 in Montgomery, Alabama.

Gigi, as many affectionately knew her, was a loving wife, sister, mother, grandmother, and small business owner. She was a remarkable cook and award winning baker. She enjoyed preparing meals for her family and friends and spent countless hours sewing. For many years leading up to her passing, she collected a large library of cookbooks, cast iron skillet, and quilts.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Luther (Lorraine) Arant and Hiram (Nellion) Littlejohn; her father, Charles Edmund Littlejohn and her grandson, Tate David Jones. She is survived by her husband, Danny Loftin; her mother, Leigh Littlejohn; her sisters, Laura (Dale) Hepworth, Brooke (Craig) Curlee; five children, Chase Loftin, Christina (David) Jones, Courtney Gray, Clay (Rachel) Loftin, Chelsea (Brandon) Thornton; nine grandchildren, Eadie Bella and Ryker Loftin, Kevin, Allie Faith and Anna Kate Jones, Olivia and Jaxon Gray, and Grayson and River Thornton; along with dozens of nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking that donations be made to the charities of your choice.

A memorial service will be held at East Memorial Baptist Church in Prattville, Alabama on Saturday, January 12, 2019 from 12pm - 1pm.

“ I had the priviledge to talk with Sweet Gretchen last week. We had plans to cook together. She was excited to come to the Assisted Living to help me cook for these Angels. She told me she wishbshe could do what I do everyday. I love her and admire the incredible woman that she is.
