“ My heart was so saddened by this news. She was a dear childhood friend and showed me how to ride a mini bike one day long ago. Praying for her family and friends.

“ Mark and family. My husband, Paul, also a court reporter, and I worked with Gwen in Pensacola. Gwen was a beautiful, sweet spirited lady that we both admired. Death can take our loved ones, but it can't take our memories. Cherish your memories. Keeping you all in our prayers.

“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories, as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

Gwen has been a wonderful neighbor for 18 plus years. She was my best friend and sister in Christ. We raised 8 kids between the two of us. She was the kind of friend who unselfishly gave of herself to always help someone in need. She was always there for my family with her legal expertise when my family needed it and always stood by and supported us. She had the best sense of humor and always had me laughing through good and bad. Gwen was always upbeat and positive and always encouraging with such love and grace. She was a beautiful woman, a wonderful mother and devoted wife. We became very close over the last few years, and we would see each other every day and talk everyday, I am going to miss her so much and I will always love her. Her family will always remain in my prayers and we will remain close, as they all have so much of their mother in them. I won't say goodbye, because I know I will see her later, and we will have so much to catch up on and she will have me laughing and smiling forever. I love you so very much Gwen, my friend, and i will see you again

“ A very kind loving lady who lived next door to us on Raines Ave. In Selbrook. Smiling face and loved helping her Mom when they watched my son David for me. Gwen, rest dear one, you made a big difference in this world

“Gwen and I grew up in Selbrook together. We rode bikes, played Dawn dolls and roller skated. She was fun and silly and could out skate and bike me always! She was spunky and full of life. I am so very sorry to hear of her passing so young. May you find peace, comfort and hope in the resurrection knowing you will see her again. I'll hope for a chance to ride like the wind on our banana seats in heaven.
