“ Dear Family, I am so very sorry about the loss of your dear loved one. May the thought at Job 33:25 give you comfort in knowing that Mr. Smith will return to the days of his youth and be able to enjoy life without the infirmities of old age. My sincere condolences to you.

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss. I have much respect for Harvie as a craftsman, as a brother in Christ, and as a friend. Although I haven't seen him in a number of years, I believe I can still walk up to him and catch up beyond the gap. I use the present tense, because I know Harvie has just moved on to be in the presence of our Lord.
