“ Hazel was a wonderful woman, i remember all the awesome family reunions over the years and they are some of my fondest memories. I can imagine the huge reunion in heaven going on now with her siblings and my mother and aunt gail all together again. I will look forward to the day when we can all have reunion once again as a family at our Lords table. My prayers go out to all the remaining earthly family and i pray for your comfort and peace. Wish i could be there on this day but your all in my thoughts and prayers.
