“ I called and talked to Jon as soon as I heard this terrible news. Benji was always willing to pitch in and help whenever he could. I remember him helping me with the lift on one of my trucks and the way that he was always willing to dive into any project (whether he knew what he was doing or not)! He wasn't afraid to take a risk. Sometimes it would turn out like he planed - sometimes it wouldn't - but one thing was for sure... He would find a way to get through it and he would bring a lot of joy to others on the journey.

We haven't spoken in years, but I have no doubt - if I would have called him - he would have been there for me. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and not ask for anything in return.

Just like Jon - I will always call Benji my brother. My heart goes out to you all. I am praying that the Holy Spirit will wrap the family in His peace.

“ My deepest condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. But remember that the Almighty God sees your tears, he feels your pain, and he will continue with you to comfort and sustain you through this difficult time. Because he cares for you - 1 Peter 5:7.
