“ Condolences to Jim's family in Alabama, with special message to his Florida family in the lose of their father & her mate for many years prior.

Now Jim you better reserve for those remaining a good seat in Heaven when we ever get there, either via death or The Rapture. I am ready....TEN TOES UP OR STRAIGHT UP!!!

Thanks for all those years of faithful service at North Hialeah Baptist Church as head deacon, visiting servant to the sick and hospitalized with Mati, and attending countless meetings with pastor and other deacons conducting the church business, etc.

DON'T FORGET MY GREAT SEAT RESERVATION!!! SEE YOU SOON!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Tell my folks hello, AND THANK JESUS FOR HIS GIFT OF LOVE VIA HIS DEATH AT THE CROSS & HIS GLORIOUS RESURRECTION DAY....plus....thanks for sending us The Holy Spirit!!!!!!!!!!!!

Rest in peace, or until we gather for that glorious fest in Heaven with our LORD & SAVIOR. Getting hungry just thinking about all those good eats, I know you are too!

Later Bro.

“ Our beloved, Jim Eikenberry, went home to be with our Lord Jesus Monday, April 12th. He suffered a massive stroke on April 7th in Montgomery, Alabama. Please pray for his family during this difficult time. Jim was an active member and served faithfully for many years at North Hialeah Baptist Church. He served as the Chairman of the Deacons. He sang in the choir. He portrayed a disciple in the Living Lord's Supper that was led by Marilyn Nelson. At one of our Round-Ups, he allowed himself to be dunked in our famous dunk tank. He will be truly missed, but we have the assurance that we will see him again when we get to Heaven.
