“ We had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Gregory and found out he was a guy full of humor behind that serious look he gave. He would often give Steven a hard time just to get under his skin, in conversations and to only turn around to say how proud he was of him when Steven left the room. That was funny. He told us how much his daughter, Jennifer looked over him too, and needed that looking over him. The "Peanut Man, truly said, the Ice-Cream had to be Homeade Vanilla and that is what he got. Mr. Gregory meant what he wanted. He also knew the Bible. Shared a little bit at breakfast one morning.

“ Jimbo and I spent many days and hours hunting deer. I will miss him and his friendship. He was a GOOD Man that Loved his family. I hate we didn't have much contact after I moved to Birmingham.

“ Jim was a great man, He was one of the most knowledgeable people in the HVAC supply business I had the pleasure of dealing with. He will be missed by many, they don't make men like Jimbo anymore. Rest in God's arms my friend.
