“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ Mike, Lynn, and family, I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Jimmy. He is in a much better place now and healthy. I have some very fun, and fond memories of Jimmy and growing up with the Lowes. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with the entire family and if I could be there, I would be. I pray God wrap his loving arms around you all and give you the support and healing only He can give. Jimmy will be missed by many, but will remain with you forever in your hearts and memories. God bless you all.
