“ Ms Wilma,

My heart goes out to you and the family for the loss of Brother Jim. Brother Jim was an outstanding human being and an excellent Mason. He taught many of us how to live our lives not just in words, but also in actions. Brother Jim was a man of action... he could be counted on to step-up and do the right thing no matter the personal outcome. As we lament the loss of our dear Brother, we take solice in the fact that we know he is in the arms of our Lord and Savior... waiting on the day when we can once again rejoice together in the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God! May God Bless You, Comfort You and Keep You until that day!

“ Wilma and family, just want you to know that you all are in my thoughts and Prayers at this time. Oz was a true and blessed friend to me and my memories of him will never be forgotten. We worked together at the Mill and sat together in the Lodge for a long time. In my life's list of good,good men Oz sits among the top of that list.I will miss him greatly and Hope for that day when we meet again. May the Lord Bless and Keep You, Wyatt
