“ To the family, we are so sorry for your loss. Losing someone in death is never easy, especially someone so young. Our Heavenly Father has promised to wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes as he will eventually do away with all sickness, pain, and death. Until that time may you continue to rely on each other and fond memories to help you through this time. (Revelation 21:3, 4)

“ There is never any words of comfort when a loved one is lost, especially at such a young age. Please know that I share you grief and my thoughts and prayers are with the family in thier time of need. I can honestly say I am glad I had the pleasure of meeting Mikee. My dear Haley (RIP) referred to Mikee as her "Big Brother" when she used to talk about him. Now she has her "Big Brother" to talk to again. May they skate forever in peace. Becca, my other daughter took the news very hard when she found out Monday. She also looked up to Mikee and considered him a brother. He will definately be missed

“ I am so sorry we have all lost such a sweet and wonderful friend. I have been blessed with sharing a great deal of Mikee's life with him and I enjoyed very minute of it. He is running the race in heaven's skating rink and laughing and smiling all the way and this time he isn't wiping out in the corners.

“ To the Family of James Taylor,

So sorry to learn about the loss of your Dear Loved One, James. Please know that so many people share your grief with you to help you through this difficult time of sorrow. Please accept my deepest condolences as we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all of those who have fallen asleep in death; including your Beloved, James. (John 11:41-44)
