

Janice Baker

May 8, 1940 - August 7, 2016

Janice Edwards Baker

On the afternoon of August 7, 2016, Janice Edwards (Jones) Baker died at 76 years old at Baptist Medical South Center in Montgomery.

Janice is survived by her loving husband, James Harold “Jim” Baker, and her two children, Harold Scott Baker (Christine) and Marianne Baker McMahon (John). She had five grandchildren: Jonathan Baker, Erica Estess, Rachael Estess, Clayton Estess, and Jasmyn Baker. She also leaves behind three loving brothers: Jimmy Jones (Bess), Luther Jones (Kaye), and Kirk Jones (Brenda), and multiple nieces and nephews.

Janice was born on May 8, 1940 in Autaugaville, Alabama, to Mary Edwards and James Earl Jones Jr. She was the oldest of four children. She graduated from the University of Montevallo, and married the love of her life, Jim Baker, on July 7, 1961. Janice served as a Mary Kay Independent Sales Director for over 30 years, and was a devoted member of the First Baptist Church in Prattville. As a lifetime advocate for health and wellness, she inspired all who knew her. She will always be remembered as a gorgeous, vivacious woman who loved her family unconditionally.

A visitation is scheduled for Tuesday, August 9th at First Baptist Church in Prattville at 9:30am with a service to follow at 10:30am. Funeral arrangements have been made with Prattville Memorial Chapel and Memory Gardens. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the Mary Kay Foundation at marykayfoundation.org.
