“ I have 13 years of memories of sharing a life and adventures with you. So many laughs with a few tears to wipe away. I remember our story with each picture I look at, each friend who comes to visit, and our animals waiting for you at the door. It does not take me long to find the memories below the sadness that surrounds this space everyday. Everywhere I go is a memory of you, of us. Remember the time you came in and burst out laughing because I used the air compressor to blow up our sleep by numbers mattress and busted it. We slept on the floor for a few nights after that. I don't want to forget the laughter it makes me remember that love story again. We only knew each other a short 13 years, but I think we packed enough good in there to help me get through every painfully awesome reminder of that love we had. Rest in peace, we'll always hold you in our hearts as we carry on down here. Love you forever and always. Ginger

“ I worked with Keith for a few years in San Diego. We would talk often after he left the company. We would call each other just to b/s or we would give. each other advice on roofing or metal. He was a true Gem and that I will always love about him. I'm going to miss you Keith! Rest Easy and say hello to all your loved ones
Love your brother.
