“ Jeanine you will always be my childhood best friend. Your my cousin too. I am so sad of your passing. I got to Alabama just in time to see you for those two amazing days to hear you talking and see you smiling was the best gift I could have asked for. I will always and forever love you.

“ The Rose Beyond the Wall
Like roses, we grow beside a great garden
wall,
Reaching higher for some true light above;
Budding thorns and flowers both great and small,
Sharing the many aromas of our love.

Along this great wall each sweet rose will find,
A crevice where the true light shines through;
Gently the rose bends within it's own time,
Passing beyond this great wall it once knew.

It's roots remain grounded on the wall's familiar side,
Where it was planted with great loving care;
Take comfort my friend, the rose has not died,
Beyond the wall it's great beauty blooms there~.
