“Jeanne taught me how to set type at Southern Publications back in 1975, my first job out of high school. I remember how Joel would ask "Why" about everything as a young boy -- Jeanne never failed to answer him. She was a dear, sweet friend. My prayers go out to her family and everyone she touched.

“At the mention of Jeanne's name, Crum would always say "Jeanne is a good girl". He loves her as I do. I will remember her as a woman of exceptional grace who always saw the good in every situation and person. She loved her family so. Rest in peace dear friend.

“Jeanne and I worked together on the Licensure Board for dietitians. Since I came off the board, we often talked. She loved her family and often spoke of them. It was a shock to see her name in the obits this morning. May God's peace and grace cover you during this difficult time.
