“ Jeremy, you are so blessed to have the loving family you do. We will never forget you. we love you so much, and want to help your family cope. We will also try to help keep your memories alive for your girls. That Sarah is so much fun, kinda reminds me of you, and Molly is so sweet. I know Lindsay and the girls are really grieving. Sherry, Allen, and Joey are being comforted as much as we can. Thanks for all the times you helped Jim, elecricity.etc. Give Papaw a hug and take him fishing, he hasn't been in quote a while. as you mom says :The Anchor Holds" and my song for your family is :We"ll understand it better by and by." .Love and prayers to your family for a life lived to the fullest..

SA

Thank you so much Mary, & Jim for all that you have done to enrich our lives with comfort, love, and the honor of being like a real sister and brother to me. Allen and I both know where to turn when we need a hand or advice. You both have always been there for us. Jeremy touched so many lives, so glad to know that he reached out and touched yours as well. We have very fond memories of him as a child in particular while all of us lived around close to each other and raised our children together and they enjoyed the memories of childhood and playing together with their cousins. We love and cherish you both. Allen & Sherry

“ *And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:
Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.”*

Ruth 1:16,17

“ To have a life cut so short is both a shock and a tragedy: many wonder where to turn for hope and comfort? Thankfully even in our darkest hours we can turn to God who is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) The Bible promises a future time when "death will be no more" (Revelation 21:4) and we can be assured the God of all comfort will bring families back together at that time.

Rachel, we are so blessed by your love and many deeds in honoring Jeremy. He would be so proud. He loved you and was looking forward to reconnecting with all of his cousins. We talked about all of those good memories recently until the wee hours of the morning. You & Julie were like Sisters to him. He had me laughing so hard, I was crying telling me about some of the crazy stuff you all did as children. Cherish those memories, I know I will through God's amazing love and comfort. We love you.
