“ Janie,

Please accept our condolences for the loss of Marlin . . . I guess we haven't seen or spoken to you all since Jackie and I left Tuscaloosa in 1973 . . . I am truly saddened by his passing . . . I guess we will meet him again sometime but until then it is with the fondest of memories that I will have when I remember the times of our youth . . . I sincerely hope you and your family will transpose your grief into fond memories in the days to come . . .

Respectively

“ Janie,

Despite our terribly painful earthly loss (although we know Marlin is not "lost", as we certainly know he's in the arms of Jesus!) in Marlin, what a wonderful life, witness and testimony that we have to celebrate. I am so thankful to Marlin for the role that he played as one of my most valued mentors in my years of serving as a vendor to AMEA.

As a strong fellow Auburn ally, he was always a strong witness in what he said and did. I am also so thankful for the valued time I spent with he and you during my visit to UAB on 8/11. It meant so much to get to visit with him again, and the privilege of meeting you (about whom I had heard so many wonderful things over the years).

You, the children, and grandchildren will have my prayer support as you struggle through this painful time. I hope that I may have the opportunity to cross paths with you again in the future, Janie. Thanks to you and to Marlin for having served as effective hands & feet of Jesus!

Warmest regards,

*Phillip Moultrie
[formerly with Marsh, a vendor to AMEA]*
